Vinh Hoan Collagen 5 received GMP-WHO for its collagen and gelatin production

On Oct 29 2015, Vinh Hoan Collagen 5 received Good Manufacturing Practice (GMP) as recommended by World Health Organization (WHO). GMP is a system for ensuring that products are consistently produced and controlled according to quality standards. It is designed to minimize the risks involved in any pharmaceutical production that cannot be eliminated through testing the final product. WHO has established detailed guidelines for GMP. GMP helps boost pharmaceutical export opportunities as well as sales to local pharmaceutical companies.
